

On Friday morning we will welcome 300 students from Fort Worth ISD, Eagle Mountain Saginaw ISD, Keller ISD, and Arlington ISD. Some of you are teachers. Some of you on this email are panelists for sessions. Some of you will have a table set up for your organization. Any/all of you are welcome to participate in our Lunch with Leaders (details on that below.) All of you are appreciated for making this day happen. We hope every attendee has a wonderful time, learns a lot, and makes great connections.

IF YOU HAVE STUDENTS THAT CANNOT BE PHOTOGRAPHED – please come to the check-in desk when you arrive. We will have bead necklaces for them to wear. This will be how our photographer identifies them so he does not take their photo.

Why:

To create pathways for young artists. To connect students with resources to help guide their future.

How:

School and Organization tables where students can find resources for learning and connecting to the arts ecosystem.

Panel discussions and activities to demonstrate different options.

Lunch with Leaders – a time for students to have conversations with different experts in their fields in the arts.

1. You'll grab a boxed lunch and a table marker and add your job title to a card to go on the stand.
2. Find a place to sit and set your sign where it can be seen by students.
3. Have conversations with students about your studies and career while you eat lunch.

A collaborative art activity that makes them think about their artist statement while creating something bigger together.

Students will receive a book from our presenters from SCAD that will help them with planning their futures.

Students will also receive a 2-question survey to fill out and leave with us before they leave. Their honest answers to these questions will help us to improve the event next year.

Dress code: casual

Food: Boxed lunches have been ordered for everyone. If you had a special order with dietary restrictions, your name will be written on the box. We will make a separate line for those to help speed things along.

Drink: Tea and Water stations will be available all day

Thank you for being a part of this special day. We are looking forward to seeing you soon!

All the best,
Amy
